

Etc. | Film festival

The Hollywood Black Film Festival will showcase more than 70 films Tuesday-June 27, including "Making the Rent" (pictured above) by Yorba Linda filmmaker Zelle Dember-Slack. The festival also includes workshops and seminars for actors and filmmakers. Screenings are at the Harmony Gold Preview House, 7655 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles. Slack's film screens at 1 p.m. Friday. For tickets, call Tickets LA (323) 655-TKTS. For more information: www.hbff.org

The Orange County Performing Arts Center presents "Dora the Explorer Live: The Search of the City of Lost Toys," based on the popular bilingual children's television series. Dora and her best friends will lead the audience through an imaginative world, solving problems along the way to reach their fun-filled goals. Show runs Wednesday-June 27. Performance times are 7 p.m. Wednesday; 10:20 a.m. and 7 p.m. Thursday; 7 p.m. Friday; 11 a.m., 2 and 5 p.m. Saturday; and 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. June 27 at the Arts Center, 600 Town Center Drive, Costa Mesa. Admission: $17-$30. Call (714) 556-ARTS or visit www.ocpac.org.